

ASREC Graduate Student Workshops

August 12 and 19, 2021

All time EST (New York)

August 12

11:00am-11:05am

Introductions

11:05am-11:45am

“The Paradox of Imperial Taxation: How Diversity Constrains Development and Dominant Groups Shoulder the Tax Burdens”

Yusuf Magiya, Columbia University

Discussant: Pavithra Suryanarayan, Johns Hopkins University

11:45am-12:25pm

“Persistence of Discrimination: Theory and Evidence”

Nishtha Sharma, University of California, Irvine

Discussant: Stephane Wolton, London School of Economics and Political Science

12:25pm-1:05pm

“The Rise of Jim Crow Rhetoric in Republican Economic Speeches”

Chris Becker, Stanford University

Discussant: Ilyana Kuziemko, Princeton University

August 19

11:00am-11:05am

Introductions

11:05am-11:45am

“Removing Cultural Barriers to Education: State-run Islamic Schools and Female Education in Turkey”

Tolga Benzer, Aalto University

Discussant: Jean-Paul Carvalho, University of California, Irvine

11:45am-12:25pm

“Religious Mobilization and the Selection of Political Elites: Evidence from Postwar Italy”

Massimo Pulejo, New York University

Discussant: Guo Xu, University of California, Berkeley

12:25pm-1:05pm

“The Origins of Common Language in Nations: Evidence from a Natural Experiment in France”

Guillaume Blanc, Brown University

Discussant: Vasiliki Fouka, Stanford University